Safeguarding Statement

The ethos of the Summer Youth Production is to provide young people from all backgrounds from across Northern Ireland with the opportunity to perform on Northern Ireland's largest and oldest stage, and learn the skills and disciplines that can be transferred to all aspects of life

The health, safety and welfare of all the young people involved in the production is paramount. The Theatre ensures that all risk assessments are completed, Health & Safety checks carried out and that the adults working with the young people have had the appropriate Access NI checks. It is also important that all participants have respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others during the project, and as such, any behaviour that could put others at risk of harm – including bullying or harassment – will be deemed unacceptable.

The production offers young people an exciting opportunity where they can learn new things in a safe, positive and fun environment.

Full details of the Theatre's Safeguarding Policy is available at <https://www.goh.co.uk/creativelearning/>

Data Protection

The personal information collected on this form is essential for the effective management of our Summer Youth Production.
